

Biographical Sketch of Reverend Dr. Marjorie Duncan Reed

Candidate for the Pastoral Position

St. Paul's Baptist Church

Conshohocken, Pennsylvania

Reverend Dr. Marjorie Duncan Reed obtained a license to preach in July, 1985 and was ordained in April 1989 at the Antioch Baptist Church in North Hills, PA. She has an earned Bachelor's Degree and Master's Degree in Theology and an earned Doctorate Degree in Ministry awarded by Slidell Baptist Seminary. She has completed additional coursework at Chestnut Hill, Montgomery County Community and Gwynedd Mercy colleges.

Dr. Reed is the founder of MDR Ministeries, Inc., and has been blessed to have completed 28 years of ministerial experience. For 19 years, she has been serving as the Executive Ministerial Assistant and the Director of Associate Ministerial Staff at Antioch Baptist Church in North Hills, PA. Additional ministerial experiences include serving as Executive Pastoral Assistant at the St. James Community Church; serving as Interim Pastor at St. James Community Church for one year; and serving as Interim Pastor at McKinley Memorial Baptist Church. Other church leadership positions that she has held include teaching Bible study and new members' classes; Church Secretary; Choir Member; and Sunday School Teacher. Throughout her career, Dr. Reed has preached in the streets and has been invited at numerous neighboring churches and nursing homes to preach and conduct workshops. In 2011 and 2012, she hosted the Radio Ministry of Genesis Ministers Conference that was broadcasted live on the third Saturday of each month on radio station WTMR.

Dr. Reed is a member of several professional organizations including the Black Clergy of Philadelphia and the Eastern Region of the PA Baptist Clergywomen. As a member of the Suburban Baptist Association, she serves as the Director of Associate Ministers. She attends PA Baptist Association State and National Conventions, is a member of the Ordination Counsel for Preachers, and has held leadership positions such as guest preacher, Financial Secretary and Reporter during the Baptist Pastors and Ministers Conferences in Philadelphia.

Her leadership abilities extend into the community as well. She has Coordinated the Feed the Homeless Program; served on the Board of Directors for Nehemiah's Way (an organization that provides housing for abused women); served on the Advisory Council for the MBF Training Center (an organization that trains handicapped individuals); served on the Early Education Childhood Council at Montgomery County Community College; served on the Board of Directors for Bridge of Hope (an organization that helps single women in Montgomery and Bucks counties find affordable housing); served as Vice Chairman on the Board of Directors of the Merck Sharp and Dohme Federal Credit Union; and served as a Board Member at Abington Memorial Hospital.

Dr. Reed is retired from Merck and Company, is a widow, has three children, 4 grandsons and 1 granddaughter. She is currently the Chaplain of Abington Memorial Hospital Hospice, and works part-time at the ACTS Retirement Community.

